One point strike us at the outset. The poli-

Chinese, and who as disposed to ward them off from their abore most starnly, are the persons! who give them the highest champter. The employers of labour have all along, been friendly to the Chinese, for the obvious reason that they do their work cheaper and better thun other people. But it is urged that their boncaty, industry, fragulity and perseverance make their formidable rivals to the European and American labourer. It is clear that, when men argue in this way, they are making capital out of the unhappy bostility that exists between two races, in order that they may give sloth, unti-rift, and laziness a monopoly of the labour mirket. Never was there a more lamentable instance of Saxou and Celtic self-conceit shutdence in the issue. -MISCELLANEOUS. Three hundred Bishops, many of them Ontholic, have declined the Pope's invitation to strend the Coumenical Council. A DESCRIPT RIVER.—One fenture of the For Freight, apply to givers of Faraguay, and a very depressing one GIBB. LIVINGSTON & Co to the traveller, is the absence of life from their banks. One steams up for league after league against the turbid stream, and no sign of man or his industry, or scarcely, indeed, of any living creature, is visible. Here and there an alligator. is basking on a sand bank, and disappears, as the boat approaches, with a lazy plurge into the water; a few melanoholy storks watching with dreamy eyes for the chance of spizing an unwary fish; or a valture waiting with folded wings for the mangled remains of a capincho, are, perhaps, all one sees in a long day's journey. Seven Eventful Years in Paraguay. By George Frederick Masterman.

BLOOD FOR BLOOD An Indian rarely or ever forgets or forgives an injury, nor can b unke any allowance for accidents. A French. usin of my acquaintance was out "firehunting" one night, and as he waved the pin of fire round to at truck the deer, he saw what he took to be a pair of eyes peering at him through the THE Spanish burque branches.
